Curator Corner: May Showers bring Museum Visitors!

Hello Museum Family,

As we get closer to Scout Season or Summer 2026 the World Scouting Museum has started to come alive. Tours and Visitors have begun to pick up the pace of their visits and our Virtual Merit Badge Classes have been super successful in the recent months. We have had Scouts from all around the US working with us here at the Museum to earn their Merit Badges through our virtual option. While we have had a few people say that virtual options are not the same, Merit Badges are supposed to be Scout led, and as Counselor my role is to help and answer questions, not to do the activities with the Scout directly. I want to stress the importance of self study in these classes, and help Scouts learn to find information on their own.

As we age we do not seek out someone to teach us about a new hobby or subject we have become interested in, the idea is that we teach Scouts how to access information about those subjects, not give them the answers. This makes them more successful and self sufficient. I say all of that to say this, unless I am teaching a specific skill that needs to be demonstrated in person I believe that the either the in person or virtual option is acceptable to be used. Not all Merit Badges are appropriate for the Virtual option obviously, but many can be completed by meeting virtually with a counselor to reaffirm and further educate Scouts about the topic of the Merit Badge. I would hope that any of the Scouts that have worked with me have learned a lot themselves and later from me when we discuss the subject together.

I have completed the additions to the Goodman-Edson OA Gallery this week and hope that we will have some Scouts stop by to see the new additions. Remember we are always looking for OA Patch donations to complete your Lodge so that we can share it with Scouts that visit the World Scouting Museum.

*Yours in Scouting,
Alex Bennett

SECTION E13 ORDER OF THE ARROW

Section E13 Order of the Arrow Logo

Order of the Arrow Section E13 Conclave was held May 15-17, 2026 at Camp Arrowhead in Ona, WV

Starting on May 15 and continuing through May 17, 2026, the Order of the Arrow Section E13 Conclave was held at Camp Arrowhead in Ona, West Virginia. The World Scouting Museum sent our Executive Director, Dr. Robert Lynn Horne to represent us and meet with Arrowmen from our local OA Section. Lodges in attendance included Marnoc, Sipp-O, Erielhonan, Tecumsah, Netawatwees, Oconomowoc, and Takhonek. The theme for the E13 Section Conclave was a “Bodacious Beach Party” and featured the 2026 Eastern Region Chief Max Mihalow who attended the Beach Party to socialize with other Arrowmen. During the Beach Party, swimming was available for any Scouts who had a valid swim test within one year before the end of the Conclave. The event was a tent camping event, so OA Members enjoyed the outdoor beauty of Camp Arrowhead in Ona, WV. On Sunday May 17th, the Museum hosted OA members from the Section Conclave, including Max Mihalow, the Eastern Region Chief. We hope that all Arrowmen had a great time, even with the unfortunate weather over the weekend. We hope to see all members of the OA Section here at the World Scouting Museum soon!

Please remember we are looking to add missing patches from our displays, so if you have a patch you would like to have added to the OA Collection that we are missing, please reach out or mail us the patch so we can add it and share more of your lodge with visiting Scouts. Congratulations from the World Scouting Museum to Sea Scout Ship Viking (#100)

Congratulations are in order for Sea Scouts of the Sea Scout Ship Viking (#100) from San Francisco, CA due to their recent naming of the 2026-2027 BoatUS-Sea Scout National Flagship! This honor dates back to 2002 and was created by the Boat Owners Association of the United States (BoatUS) to mark the 90th Anniversary of Sea Scouts and to recognize excellence in program quality, youth achievement, and adult commitment.

The Ship Viking, which is chartered by the San Francisco Sailing Whaleboat Association exemplifies the mission of the Sea Scouts and consists of 34 Sea Scouts who in 2025 have demonstrated exceptional achievement in advancement and training. The ship even completed a two-weeklong cruise through the San Francisco Bay to the Sacramento-San Joaquin Delta along with weekly sailing and kayaking trips. The Ship has also competed in Sea Scout events and had one of the Sea Scouts selected to sail about the USCCG Barque Eagle, which is a distinguished honor for that Scout and the Sea Scout Ship!

We want to send our hearty CONGRATULATIONS to this all Female Sea Scout Ship for this honor!

Exhibit Spotlight of the Month: The Unknown Japanese Scout Memorial in Kodomo-no-Kuni Children's Park in Yokohama, Japan

In Kodomo-no-Kuni (Children's) Park in Yokohama, Japan, stands a memorial that tells the story of a chance meeting between two Scouts on opposing sides during wartime. During World War II, on Bougainville Island in the South Pacific, an American soldier lay wounded on the beach. His left leg was seriously injured, and he was unable to walk, so he lay on the beach waiting to be found. After a long time, he heard someone approaching. When he opened his eyes, he saw a Japanese Soldier standing over him with a bayonet attached to his rifle. His first thought was that the Japanese Soldier would kill him, and he fainted.

Later, to the surprise of the American Soldier, he woke up lying on the same beach with his left leg bandaged. Beside him on the beach lies a note, written in Japanese, which he puts in his pocket for later since he could not read it. He prayed for a rescue and continued the long wait; at least now his wound was bandaged. Later, fellow Marines would find the wounded soldier and would evacuate him to a field hospital. Once in the field hospital, the American soldier found that the physician treating him could read Japanese, so the soldier showed him the note. The unsigned note contained a message from the Japanese soldier, which read: "When I was about to kill you, you made the three-fingered Scout salute. I, too, am a Scout. A Scout is a brother to every other Scout so I could not kill you. I gave you first aid instead. Good luck!"

After the war, the American soldier and his father were said to have visited the Boy Scout Headquarters and told the story to the Chief Scout Executive Arthur Schuck. They were also said to have donated money for a memorial (or for the Scouting movement). One important detail is that the American Scout Soldier asked that their names not be revealed unless the Japanese Scout Soldier was identified. Sometime after 1953 the Chief Scout Executive of Japan finally heard the story, either from an American visiting Japan or from Arthur Schuck himself on his way back to Japan from Lichtenstien.

This is a large area of study, and we cannot continue the story in this limited space. Please visit our Exhibit Spotlight page for the completed story. Just scan the QR Code!
